Additionally, Daktronics announced that Mike Knapp has joined the company as investor relations officer, effective Oct. 19, 2026.

In this role, Knapp will lead Daktronics' investor relations efforts and serve as a key liaison between the company and the investment community. He will partner with the executive team to communicate Daktronics' strategy, financial performance and long-term growth opportunities, while strengthening relationships with current and prospective investors and research analysts.

"Mike is a top-tier investor relations professional with deep, broad experience in the public securities market," said acting CFO Howard Atkins. "He will be a tremendous asset for Daktronics as the company strengthens its investor relations program."

Knapp brings more than 20 years of public-company experience spanning investor relations, corporate communications, treasury and financial strategy. He most recently led investor relations at Nagarro SE and previously held senior roles overseeing investor engagement, strategic communications and capital markets strategy.

"I am thrilled to join Daktronics at such a pivotal time," Knapp said. "The company's strong market position and strategic direction create a compelling opportunity for long-term growth and value creation. I look forward to working with the leadership team to deepen our engagement with the investment community and clearly communicate the drivers of Daktronics' performance and long-term potential."
