This Form 8-K contains both historical and forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The statements contained in this report that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements that are subject to the safe harbors created under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including statements regarding our expectations, beliefs, intentions and strategies for the future. These statements appear in a number of places in this Report and include all statements that are not historical statements of fact regarding our intent, belief or current expectations with respect to, among other things: (i) our financing plans; (ii) trends affecting our financial condition or results of operations; (iii) our growth strategy and operating strategy; (iv) the declaration and payment of dividends; (v) the timing and magnitude of future contracts; (vi) parts shortages and longer lead times; (vii) fluctuations in margins; and (viii) the introduction of new products and technology. The words “may,” “would,” “could,” “should,” “will,” “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “intend,” “plans” and similar expressions and variations thereof are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Investors are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risk and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our ability to control, and that actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors discussed herein, including those discussed in detail in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 1, 2010 in the section entitled “Item 1A. Risk Factors”

Section 1 – Registrant’s Business and Operations

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 2, 2010, the Company entered into amendments (the “Amendments”) to its Loan Agreement dated October 14, 1998, as amended, and related Renewal Revolving Note dated November 12, 2009 (collectively, the “Credit Facility”) with U.S. Bank National Association (the “Bank”). The Amendments extend the maturity date of the Credit Facility to November 15, 2011; extend the date of final expiration for outstanding letters of credit from November 15, 2011 to April 15, 2014 in the case of letters of credit not exceeding $100,000, and to November 15, 2012 in the case of other letters of credit; and modify the Adjusted Fixed Charge Coverage ratio by excluding from the computation the special cash dividend paid by the Company in the second quarter of fiscal 2011. As of November 2, 2010, no advances under the Renewal Revolving Note were outstanding, and letters of credit outstanding as of the same date were approximately $2 million. The Credit Facility remains unsecured.

As a result of the strong cash position of the Company, the Company determined that it was appropriate to not make any material changes to the Credit Facility. As of September 25, 2010, the Company had approximately $65 million of available and unrestricted cash, which it feels diminishes the need for a larger credit facility or other material amendments to the Credit Facility, although this situation could change.

The foregoing description of the Credit Facility and the Amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendments, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

- D. Lender and Borrower mutually wish to renew and amend the Revolving Note (pursuant to a Renewal Revolving Note dated even date herewith), and to amend the Loan Agreement as provided herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are acknowledged, Borrower and Lender covenant and agree as follows:

1. The following definitions in Section 1.1 of the Loan Agreement are amended and restated as follows:

Section 2.1 Revolving Loan. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, Lender agrees to make available a revolving loan (the "Revolving Loan") to Borrower in the principal amount of Thirty-five Million and No/100 Dollars ($35,000,000.00). Borrower may obtain advances, prepay and obtain new advances under the Revolving Loan.

Borrower may request and Lender, in its sole discretion, may issue as part of the Revolving Loan, letters of credit in a total amount not to exceed $15,000,000.00. Otherwise, all letters of credit will expire on or before November 15, 2011. The amount available to be borrowed under the Revolving Loan will be correspondingly reduced by the face amount of all letters of credit issued. Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, Lender will have no obligation to issue any letter of credit, or to amend, extend, renew or replace any letter of credit, unless it is in form and substance acceptable to Lender.

3. Schedule VI to the Loan Agreement (“Schedule VI”) is amended and restated as attached to this Ninth Amendment.

4. Except as modified herein, all the terms and conditions of the Loan Agreement, including previous amendments thereto, will remain in full force and effect.

5. Borrower acknowledges that the Loan Agreement and related Loan Documents are and will remain the legal and binding obligation of Borrower, free of any claim, defense, or offset.
