SECTION 8 – OTHER EVENTS

ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

Frank K. Kurtenbach, a Vice President, Sales and a Director of Daktronics, Inc. (the "Company"), has entered into a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan to sell up to a total of 60,000 shares of the Company's common stock. Portions of the shares may be sold any time the stock achieves certain prearranged minimum prices and sales may take place beginning on July 12, 2005 and ending on January 11, 2007 unless the plan is terminated sooner. The amount of shares sold in any month is limited to a maximum of 5,000 shares with any unsold shares being carried over to future months during the term of the plan. Mr. Kurtenbach will not have any control over the timing of any sales under the plan and there can be no assurance that the shares covered by the plan actually will be sold. Mr. Kurtenbach entered into the plan in order to diversify his financial holdings. Mr. Kurtenbach will continue to have a significant ownership interest in the Company because these shares represent less than 11.5% of all shares beneficially owned by him. As such, these sales are not significant to his total interest in the Company.

This trading plan is intended to comply with Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Company's insider trading policy. Rule 10b5-1 allows corporate insiders to establish prearranged written plans to buy or sell a specified number of shares of Company stock over a set period of time. A plan must be entered into in good faith at a time when the insider is not in possession of material, nonpublic information. Subsequent receipt by the insider of material, nonpublic information will not prevent transactions under the plans from being executed.
